

GENESIS MAINTENANCE AGREEMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS
VERSION - GENMA-V04-20

Thank you for purchasing a Maintenance Agreement from Genesis of Oklahoma, or its affiliate, OMECorp Genesis Business Systems (collectively “Genesis”). This document is a part of your Maintenance Agreement with Genesis and it provides additional details regarding Genesis’ Maintenance Agreement covering the hardware and software of the equipment covered by the Genesis Maintenance Agreement and listed on the Genesis Maintenance Agreement (“Products”).

WHAT’S COVERED?

Maintenance Services, as described herein, will be provided for the Products at the location listed under the Installation Information section of the Genesis Maintenance Agreement (“Installation Location”). Genesis agrees to provide the parts, labor, and supplies needed for the ordinary maintenance of the Products as required due to normal wear, tear, and usage ("Maintenance Services"). Maintenance Services do not include Excluded Services (as defined below) as defined solely by Genesis. Maintenance Services may include preventative maintenance and inspections from time to time, as determined by Genesis. Software Maintenance Services include the installation of updates for program(s), associated supporting documentation made generally available by Genesis, and commercially reasonable efforts to correct any incidents. The Genesis Software Maintenance Services Agreement is not a software license agreement. Genesis may, at its option, designate a third party to provide Maintenance Services. Genesis, in its sole discretion, may service the Products by replacing the Product with new or like-new Products; provided that such replacement products are substantially similar to the Products listed on the Genesis Maintenance Agreement. Maintenance Services will be provided during normal business hours excluding Genesis observed holidays. Any parts or Products that are replaced by Genesis while performing Maintenance Services shall become the property of Genesis.

WHAT ARE THE MAINTENANCE SERVICES FEES AND WHEN ARE THEY DUE?

For Purchased Products:

Customer shall commence paying for the Maintenance Services upon delivery of the Products to the Installation Location. All fees for Maintenance Services ("Maintenance Fees") on the Products are invoiced per the billing frequency indicated on the signature page of this agreement in advance. Usage overages will be invoiced on the next invoice following the date in which usage counts are requested. Usage overages will be billed at the overage rate listed on the signature page of this agreement.

For Leased Products:

If the Products are being leased ("Leased Products") and the Maintenance Fees are included in the lease payment amount, then Maintenance Services will be provided at no extra cost, except for the Additional Charges (as defined below), during the initial term of the lease, provided the Customer is current with all lease payments. Customer shall commence paying for the Maintenance Services on Leased Products, where Maintenance Fees are included in the lease payment, on the date the lease commences. During any renewal term, Customer agrees to pay the then-current fee for Maintenance Services. Usage overages will be invoiced on the next invoice following the date in which usage counts are requested. Usage overages will be billed at the overage rate listed on the signature page of this agreement.

Additional Charges:

In addition to the Maintenance Fees, Customer agrees to pay for (a) labor, parts, and expenses for Excluded Services performed by Genesis; (b) travel expenses and any on-site maintenance services that in the opinion of Genesis is not deemed necessary; (c) an increased Maintenance Fee during the initial maintenance term for Products that are regularly used by more than one shift of personnel per business day, or exceed Product recommended usage; (d) Genesis may increase the Maintenance Fees during and at the end of the initial maintenance term (as defined below) and any renewal term; (e) equipment refurbishment required for Products that are in excess of annual or lifetime volume thresholds as solely defined by Genesis; (f) Genesis approved power protection device(s) to assist in preventing electrical issues and damage to Products; (g) Genesis has the option to increase the base and overage cost per copy amount during the initial term of the agreement, given the Customer's toner usage exceeds the yield ratings set by the manufacturer. In the event Customer's account is greater than 30 days past due, the Genesis Maintenance Agreement may be suspended and Maintenance Services placed on a billable/per call basis and Customer agrees to pay the then-current fee for Maintenance Services until Customer's account is brought back to current and the Genesis Maintenance Agreement reinstated. Any uninvoiced supplies remaining in the Product will be invoiced to Customer at the then-current retail rate and prorated based on usage remaining. At Genesis' sole discretion the Customer may be required to obtain a final customer visit to perform Excluded Services in order to complete a termination of Genesis Maintenance Agreement. All additional charges shall be at Genesis' then-current rates for time, materials, and uninvoiced supplies. Charges for labor shall include travel expenses including travel time, gas, tolls, mileage, etc. Customer agrees to make payments to the address specified on Genesis invoices, or at any other place designated in writing by Genesis, within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice. If Genesis does not receive a payment in full on or before its due date, Customer shall pay a fee equal to 5% of the amount that is late, or twenty five dollars ($25), whichever is greater; but in no event, shall Customer pay more than the maximum amount allowed by law. In addition, Customer agrees to pay Genesis the then-current fee for checks returned unpaid and for ACH direct debit transactions which are rejected. All payments for Maintenance Services and additional charges are nonrefundable.

WHAT ARE THE TERMS & CANCELLATION PROCEDURES OF MAINTENANCE SERVICES?

For Purchased Products:

Unless otherwise specified in the Genesis Maintenance Agreement, the initial term of Genesis Maintenance Agreement is one (1) year and unconditionally non-cancellable by Customer. Unless Customer provides at least ninety (90) days written notice to Genesis prior to the end of the initial term, or any renewal term, the Genesis Maintenance Agreement shall automatically renew for an additional one (1) year term at Genesis' then-current fee for Maintenance Services.

For Leased Products:

The initial term of the Genesis Maintenance Agreement for Leased Products will be equal to the initial term of the lease and unconditionally non-cancellable by Customer. If Customer elects to execute an early termination of the lease, and Maintenance Service is not included in the termination quote in the lease, Genesis will invoice the Customer for the remaining months of the initial or renewal term of the Genesis Maintenance Agreement. The Genesis Maintenance Agreement shall automatically renew upon renewal of the lease at Genesis' then-current fee for Maintenance Service.

CUSTOMER'S MAINTENANCE OBLIGATIONS: Customer agrees to maintain the Products in accordance with Genesis' specifications. Customer shall not perform, or permit third parties to perform, maintenance or repair on the Products not in accordance with Genesis' specifications or approved in writing by Genesis.

FIRST LEVEL SUPPORT: Genesis will provide first level support to the designated support contacts via email, telephone, or other commercially reasonable means during normal business hours. First level support may require remote connection to your Product or software program(s).

COPIES OF DATA: Customer is solely responsible for all data stored on the Products and making copies of all such data prior to Genesis performing Maintenance Services.

USE OF GENESIS SUPPLIES: If the Customer uses other than Genesis provided supplies without the expressed written consent of Genesis, and if such supplies cause service calls, service problems, or damage to Products, Genesis may, at its option, assess a surcharge or terminate the Genesis Maintenance Agreement.
